

Tips, Information, and Checklists

We want your journey back home to be as smooth and worry-free as possible. Here are useful tips, information, and checklists for your departure. Whether you have booked a departure cleaning service or are taking care of the cleaning yourself, these checklists can be of great help.

Departure Cleaning - if you have booked a departure cleaning service

If you have booked a departure cleaning service, it is important to prepare the accommodation for the cleaning team. Check off the list to ensure that all necessary measures have been taken:

- Wash the dishes
- Put away glasses, cutlery, and dishes
- Dispose of all garbage
- Clean out trash bins and garbage cabinets.

Self-Cleaning - Checklist for selfcleaning

If you choose to clean the accommodation yourself before departure, this checklist can be of great help. By using the checklist, you can ensure that you don't miss cleaning anything important before heading home.

Kitchen

- Refrigerator and freezer
- Glasses, cutlery, and dishes
- Stove, oven, and baking trays
- Microwave
- Dishwasher, including the filter
- Coffee maker and toaster
- Kitchen hood filter
- Waste bins and cabinets

Bedroom

- Cabinets and drawers
- Wardrobes
- Furniture
- Fold bed lines

Bathroom

- Sink
- Toilet
- Tops and faucets
- Tiles
- Mirrors
- Floor drain in the shower and sauna

Common Areas

- Dispose of garbage
- Mop the floors (finish off with the floors)
- Drying cabinet
- Fireplace (do not use a vacuum cleaner)

Before leaving the accommodation, you should also check that the refrigerator and freezer are on and ensure that all windows and doors are properly closed. Additionally, it is important to sort waste correctly and make sure that trash bins are emptied, cleaned, and restored. Remember to fold rented linens and place them inside the outer door.
